

As an amateur radio operator since 1958, I would like to express my opposition to the elimination of morse code as a licensing requirement. Morse is a vital mode of emergency communications, and I see no reason to eliminate one of the last reasons for learning and using it. It is a part of the amateur radio heritage, and it is a part of our National Heritage.